The Alexandra Writers' Centre Society is now accepting applications for the Spring 2013 Writer-in-Residence. The residency will run for a two month period, March/April or April/May, (dates to be confirmed after selection).

The following commitments are required:

- A reading that introduces the author to members and the community
- Thirty (30) one-on-one manuscript critique sessions
- Two (2) one day workshops (six hours), and
- A reading to close the residency.

The successful candidate must be:

- A published author with teaching experience
- Comfortable critiquing a variety of genres (prose, poetry, non-fiction)

Application Package should include:

- A cover letter introducing yourself and a short exposition on what would make you a good choice for the residency
- Resume or CV listing publishing credits and teaching experience
- Theme and outline for your proposed workshops.

Remuneration: The successful candidate will be paid $2500 for the two month commitment.
